Have You Heard the Buzz?

On December 1, 2023, Bee Happy will be hosting The Greatest Show! The Busy Bees will take to the stage to showcase their unique and wonderful talents. The Busy Bees are hard at work and are very excited to let their light shine bright. Dinner and dessert are also provided!

In addition to an evening of entertainment, The Greatest Show is a silent auction, with all proceeds benefiting Bee Happy programs. We are looking for a Ring Master level sponsor. If you are able to become a sponsor at any level, please reach out! We also appreciate all prayers, donations, and tickets bought! Tickets are on sale now!

Reimagine was created by Still Water's mentor Kris Patterson and mentee, Tori Nolen. Both Kris and Tori are parents to Special Needs sons; Matthew, who is an adult, and Elliot, who is a child. Kris and Tori had several discussions regarding the lack of support groups and bible studies for young parents of Special Needs children. They recognized that maintaining a relationship with Christ can be daunting for most parents, especially during the many storms that parents of kiddos with Special Needs face. They wanted to create a group for those families to connect with one another and to help each other lean on God's word. After prayerful consideration, Reimagine was born. Kris reached out to Shelley Brookins, founder of Bee Happy, to discuss adding Reimagine under the Bee Happy ministry umbrella. Initially, Shelley said no, but heard God tell her YES!

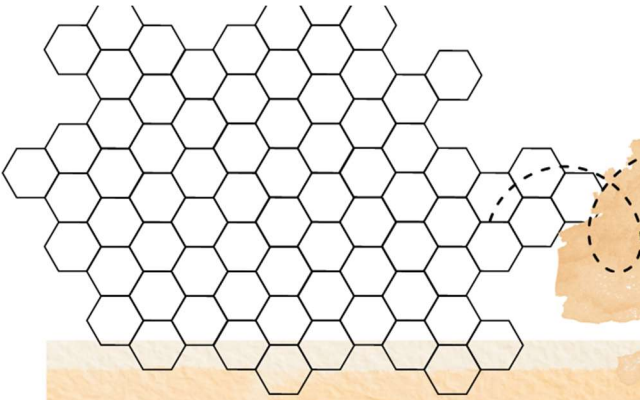

Reimagine consists of bible study and support from speakers who share their experiences and knowledge on a variety of topics, ranging from informational, financial, and inspirational. One night a month is set aside for a parent connect night. Although Reimagine was initially for parents of Special Needs children, this year, parents of Special Needs individuals of ALL ages are welcome to sign up and participate. Special Needs individuals will be paired with an anchor and will join other individuals (and their siblings!) in a classroom setting while parents participate in their own class.

Reimagine will resume on September 11, 2023. If you are interested in volunteering for Reimagine, please reach out via the Bee Happy website.

The 2023 Golf Tournament was HUGE success! We could not have done it without you! Head on over to the Bee Happy website to check out our list of amazing sponsors, see photos from the day, and read the category winners!

Jack says that his favorite thing about Bee Happy is getting to hang out with his friends! His mom says that they moved to Texas after her husband passed, and for two years, Jack had no program involvement until Bee Happy. Jack's mom says that all adults, young and old, need community and fellowship, making programs for special needs adults like Bee Happy so important.
